my comprehension." There is good reason for believing the Japanese are taking every opportunity to impress upon the Rossians the galvantage to them of friendly co-operation setween the two countries in the agatern Pacific. Whether this is to be done with a view of Japon continuing to hold Port Arthur notwithstanding the existnce of the treaty is not so clear, but there are some who interpret the Japan-ese tactics to mean this. It seems clear at any rate from all that can be learned here that Japan will hold on to the footng she now occupies on Chinese soil until the indemnity is paid or until sha s driven out by more formidable display then can be made in a diplomatic conference.
